TRUSTNET.COM LAUNCHES WWW.TRUSTNETOFFSHORE.COM FOR THE GLOBAL OFFSHORE ADVISER AND INVESTOR

- Trustnet.com launches trustnetoffshore.com
- Powerful research aid for offshore mutual funds, offshore insurance funds and ETFs
- Trustnet Offshore allows the user to view performance and pricing of over 15,000 global funds in a selection of currencies, with the option to rebase into sterling, dollar or euro

Trustnet, a Financial Express company, is launching the world's first completely free to use website offering comprehensive prices, performance and key facts covering the global 'offshore'-domiciled funds market. Featuring about 15,000 detailed fund factsheets, the site provides access to a rich store of information including daily updated prices and performance statistics, asset allocation, holdings and fund manager details.

Divided into three major databases, Trustnet Offshore is a powerful research aid for anyone investing in offshore mutual, offshore insurance or exchange traded funds, offering details on individual funds as well as tools allowing the user to consider funds within the context of their peer groups and other benchmarks.

Uniquely, Trustnet Offshore allows users to rebase the currency in which they view fund performance to a single master currency with the option to view performance and pricing of global funds in dollar, sterling or euro regardless of the funds' native currency and on a consistent gross-of-tax basis.

The Trustnet Offshore toolset includes a fantasy portfolio, allowing the user to build and manage a global fund portfolio to replicate real assets, or experiment with new techniques, and users can gain an accurate picture of their true underlying asset allocation using a powerful portfolio scanner tool.

This tool allows the user to aggregate a portfolio of funds to see a true picture of exposure, highlighting portfolio creep and accidental overweights, while a powerful charting tool makes it possible to compare instruments across many universes.

Trustnetoffshore.com, like its sister site in the UK, will also offer a broad range of news, analysis, comment and education based on the funds, sectors and asset classes which can be researched within it.
